Proposal Submission Guidelines:

We invite proposals for presentations related to the conference theme and sub-themes. Since the conference focuses on Holocaust education, emphasis is on interactive or workshop-style presentations featuring pedagogical tools and techniques. Presenters will be invited to submit papers for possible inclusion in the proceedings following the conference. Please follow these guidelines when submitting your presentation proposal:

- Format—proposals should be single-spaced, Times New Roman, font size 12
- Proposal Title—Proposal titles must reflect either the main theme or one of the three sub-themes to be considered for presentation.
- Name of Presenter(s)—Please type your name, professional position, institutional affiliation and contact information including your address, phone, fax, and e-mail.
- Body of the Proposal—Must not exceed 600 words.
 - Background (10%): Provide a brief description of the class in which you teach this subject matter, age of students and description of educational setting.
 - Rationale/Educational Objective of Presentation (10%): Why are you doing what you are doing? What are the problems or dilemmas you intend to raise during your presentation? What specific materials did you chose and why? What types of teaching methods did you employ?
 - Teaching Materials You Will Present (60%): Provide an explanation of the materials/curriculum that you used.
 - Results/conclusions/reflections (20%): Were you successful in reaching your goals? How did your students react? What was the outcome? What can you suggest to your colleagues who may want to use these materials?

E-mail proposals to: ncche@setonhill.edu

Submission deadline: May 15, 2009

The triennial Ethel LeFrak Holocaust Education Conference seeks to enhance Catholic-Jewish understanding by "educating the educators" in the hope of reaching the whole of humanity. The Conference will equip teachers and faculty members, especially those at Catholic institutions to enter into serious discussions on the causes of antisemitism and the Holocaust and to write and deliver papers that will shape appropriate curricular responses at Catholic institutions and other educational sites.
